2. DESCENDANTS OF DUNCAN OR DOUGALL ROY MCPHADEN IN COLL

THIS ACCOUNT IS BASED ON THE CONJECTURAL DESCENT OF THE MACFADYENS IN COLL AS REPORTED BY NICHOLAS MACLEAN-BRISTOL.

The name Mcphaden evolved into several different spelling over the years. Those of that name remaining in Scotland often adopted MacFadyen as their surname about the mid 19th century. Emigrants of Canada tended to keep the old country spelling of McPhadden, with its variations. Other emigrants chose McFadyen. This was a personal choice, and there was no uniformity in the spelling of the name. The choice of the spelling in this report is purely arbitrary, and is more guesswork than anything.

Generation No. 1

1. DUNCAN or DOUGALL ROY⁴ MCPHADEN (Donald³, John², Angus¹)

Duncan was shown as Duncan McDonald Vc Eane and Dougall Roy was shown as Dougall McDonald Vc Eane in a list of all the men and soldiers that served under Donald McLeane in the House of Breackaich (Breacachadh Castle), in July 3, 1679, as were cousins, John, and Donald. A Murdo Mclain Vc Eane was also listed among these household men, but whether he was a Mcphaden is open to question. This group of 24 comprised the castle guard, or household men, of Maclean of Coll, who were given land near the castle to defend it if necessary. They were known in Gaelic as his 'luchd tighe'.

Children of Duncan or Dougall MCPHADEN are:

- + 2 i. Hugh Roy⁵ Mcphaden.
- 3 ii. Angus Mcphaden.
 Angus was living in Feall in 1716, and admitted to have been in the Jacobite Rebellion of the prior year.
